TUFTS WINS

A week ago last night the Varsity played its third game of the season and suffered its second defeat.

The score was 34-29. The game proved to be a disappointment in that the Varsity failed to play the game of which it is capable. To be sure, Allen was away, which might have accounted for the rather poor team work. Yet Regin individually played an excellent game, and in number of baskets outclassed his man, who is considered the best player on Tufts' team.

The game was all in Hamilton's favor during the early part of the first half. Sherwin started the scoring, and for nearly ten minutes Tufts was almost entirely on the defensive. The tide then turned and Tufts, by accurate passing and shooting, evened up the score, and was leading by one point at the end of the half.

The Varsity's chief fault seemed to be an inability to regain the ball when once in Tufts' possession and to change from offensive to defensive quickly enough to prevent damage being done. They also covered poorly. In this Sherwin was the chief offender.

The second half was slower, with Hamilton mostly on the defensive. Sherwin was forced to retire from the game in the second half, having committed five fouls, two of which were accidental if not absolutely unavoidable. Regin took his place at center, Conklin was shifted to forward, and Hopkins finished the game at guard.

COLGATE—HAMILTON GAME

Hamilton lost to Colgate in the last home game of the season, last Friday evening. The final score was 31 to 29. The Varsity ought to have won, but at the last moment were unable to tie the score. It was a good game, hard fought to the end, and the outcome of the game was not settled until the whistle blew at the end of the second half. To have played the best Team Colgate has ever had in so close a game, is a great credit to the Varsity. They had to work every minute for victory. The College, of course, was disappointed not to have won, but every man went away from the Gym., proud of the Buff and Blue Team.

Sherwin started the game with a pretty basket. This was closely followed with a score by Colgate. Hamilton made a point from foul. During the rest of the first half, one team after the other led. When Colgate was ahead it was only by a few points.

The second half opened with a rush. Colgate steadily drew ahead until they led the Varsity by nine points. Then Hamilton played its best. Basket after basket was scored until a tie was accomplished. Loeber then made a pretty long shot, thus again placing the Maroon team in the lead. Coster added another—short one. The Varsity then added another basket. From this time to the end of the game the Hamilton team fought to win. Time and again they tried to score a basket and tie, but were unable to do so, even though the play was in Hamilton's favor for the last five minutes.

For Colgate, Loeber and Coster were the stars. Getman, for the Varsity, played a great game at guard.

THE MUSICAL TRIP

On Thursday noon, February 4th, the Musical Clubs started on their first real conquest of the year.

Arriving at Gloversville late in the afternoon, the men were cordially received by the members of the local Theta Phi, under whose auspices the concert was held. Since the Clubs had won the town twice before, the reception was one of old friends, and from the start Gloversville was thoroughly enjoyed.

The concert was given in the large auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal Church, eminently fitted for the occasion. An audience of over seven hundred greeted the Clubs, and they were consistently insistent in their applause, encores being necessary in every number. The Tutti Fruttis took unexpectedly well, and the quartet's repertoire of tuneful, snappy melodies was applauded to the last piece. Hastings, '10, sustained his reputation for winning solos, while Sarles, '10, tone and range enraptured. Woolleott with his female monologues (the better one being original) was a hit in make-up, action and delivery. The Mandolin Club proved the rumor that it is the best in Hamilton history. After the dance the Clubs adjourned to the Masonic Hall, where the damsels of Gloversville reciprocated with a terpsichorean entertainment (dance). During the stay each man had the privileges of the "Eccentric Club," the best club in this section of the state. As usual, Mr. G. H. Witherhead, '88, was instrumental in making Gloversville a quasi-Elysium.

SCHENECTADY was reached in the afternoon of Friday. Most of the men stayed at the fraternity houses of Union, and in the audience—especially at the singing of Carissima, when about a hundred stood up in honor of our Alma Mater—the Union men were prominent. The concert was given in benefit of the Senior Class of Schenectady High School, and an audience even larger than that in Gloversville filled the auditorium, which, in acoustics and general suitability was nearly ideal. The enthusiasm also surpassed even that of Gloversville. The quartet exhausting its vocal repertoire, had to resort to a rusty elog. Sarles' voice was better than the night before, but Hastings' not so good. The Instrumental Club continued its excellence, but the Glee Club's snap and precision made the greatest impression. Woolleott had the audience at his mercy.

TO 1910 THE LAURELS! This Junior Week was a smasher of records from start to finish. The guests, the crowd dances, the weather—the entire actuality—made what we had hoped for look like a twin. The Prom. was the creation of the effort, brains and enthusiasm of a committee that was not unlike the class it represented. To compliment a class may be poor policy, but LIFE is so fond of seeing things done bigger and better in Hamilton that it impulsively oversteps discretion. To 1910 LIFE tenders congratulations on the most enjoyable Junior Week within the memory of the present student body.

THE ONLY DEFICIENCY of the Prom. festivities was the poor showing of the Musical Clubs. This is particularly regrettable in that the concert was perhaps the only one that the College will hear. However, if the readers realize that the lack of voice was abnormal and inevitable, that the lack of certainty and precision was in consequence of the former, and that every other concert of the year was 100 per cent. better—then a fair estimate of your organization may be approached. Hear them again before you decide.

THE COLGATE GAME was satisfactory, tho, from one viewpoint it seemed heart-breaking. Yet when we down the impulse of victory-lust, we are without regret. To have come within one basket of the team that beat Rochester, which in turn beat Pennsylvania, is a fact that pleases—especially when the result was due to a consistent up-hill fight culminating in a decided ascendancy during the last five minutes. Only one thing mars the retrospect—the thoughtless rooting of some too eager supporters. Time and again a misplay or error in judgment on the part of the team brought forth audible adverse criticism from some of the spectators. Such action may prove a knowledge of the game on the part of the spectator, but it is not the sort of encouragement that we seem to commend.

THE JUNIOR PROM.

The Junior Prom. of last Thursday was probably the most successful event of its kind ever held. The efforts of the Committee were well planned and ably carried out. Thro its enterprise the dance was blest with several features not at all usual. The electric lighting lent itself to many attractive effects. Zita's music was inimitable, and thro its charm kept fatigue in the dim distance. A booth for the Patronesses not only made it easier to meet them, but cleared the upper end of the floor for dancing. Altho the dances were run off as fast as possible, in the hope of finishing the program at 3 a. m., this was found impossible. It was not until an hour later that Carissima came. This close, however, was the earliest in years.

The Gym. was decorated in blue and buff: the patronesses' booth was of the same color. The programs were decidedly unique, consisting of burnitwood covers with a leather lining and gilt nails. Owens was the caterer and gave satisfactory service.

G. M. DIVEN, '57

George Miles Diven, '57, a prominent citizen of Elmira and well known thruout the state, died at his home in that city, on Monday of last week, after an illness of two weeks, aged 74 years. His father was one of the early settlers of Elmira, and he was educated in the Elmira Free Academy, at a private school in Geneva, and in 1857 was graduated from Hamilton College in high standing. In 1861 he was admitted to the bar and begun practice in partnership with his father. He was very successful, and for many years was recognized as the leading lawyer of the Southern Tier. He was one of the founders of the New York State Bar Association, and in 1890 was elected to the presidency of this influential organization. He was admitted to the Bar in 1861, and continued to practice up to the time of his death. Mr. Diven was an extensive traveler and at different times visited Europe, Egypt and Japan. In 1872 he was chosen a trustee of Hamilton College.

SUPERINTENDENT OF INSURANCE

The nomination of Hon. William H. Hotchkiss, '86, of Buffalo, to be Superintendent of Insurance for New York State, has been received by the press as another indication that Governor Hughes intends to call the best men into the public service. The daily papers of last Saturday sketched the career of Mr. Hotchkiss during the years since his graduation. We of Hamilton, feel a pardonable pride in claiming him as one of our Alumni, and in pointing to his College record, as a forecast of what his future has proved to be. Hotchkiss was one of the prominent men in the College, of twenty-five years ago. His rank of Salutatorian was based on excellence of scholarship in the most varied fields, mathematics, language, historical and philosophical branches. He was a young man of fine presence, a versatile writer and skillful speaker, naturally, a Prize Debater and a Clark Prize Orator. In presenting our congratulations to the lawyer and man of affairs who is presently to assume an important public duty, we will not pass over in silence the fact that he won distinction as a student by writing the best poem in competition for the prize offered by the Lit. Board of 1886, a poem which Professor North, the judge in the competition, characterized as a "graceful idyl," showing "a ripe felicity of thought, phrase and rhythm."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

On Sunday afternoon, at 5:30, there will be a student meeting in Silliman Hall. Thruout the world, this day will be observed as the "Universal Day of Prayers for Students." The united prayers of all Christians in College are urged on behalf of reconsecration and increased numbers of students in Christian service.

The Upperclassmen's Mission Study Class and the Freshman Bible Class meet as usual, on Sunday, at 3:00.

Those who spent two successive hours, listening to two of our Alumni speak in Chapel and in Silliman Hall, respectively, feel that those were hours well employed. Dr. Squires will occupy our Pulpit, tomorrow afternoon as announced. Dr. Knox, who preaches the following Sunday, will also speak to us more informally in Silliman Hall. On the 28th, Rev. White, of the Stone Church, will at our afternoon student meeting, talk on "Sowing and Reaping."

—The February Lit. appeared yesterday. The Alumiana and Editorial Departments are interesting, and the Literary Department diversified.

NOTES

—McAeny, ex-'10, has been on the Hill for Junior Week.

—The Spring meet of the N. Y. S. I. A. U. will be held in Utica.

—Freshman Prayer Meetings will begin next week. Warren, '12, will lead on Thursday evening.

—Professor Babcock spoke to the Clinton High School, on Lincoln's Birthday.

—In Dr. Stryker's absence, Prof. Wood has taken his place in Morning Chapel.

—Professor Miller lectured on "Earthquakes" at the Clinton Y. M. C. A., last Monday evening.

—I. K. Baxter, who coached the Track Team so well last spring, will probably be engaged again this year.

—A new set of Pins have been purchased for the Bowling Alleys. The Alleys were closed during Junior Week.

—In the Basketball game yesterday afternoon, between the Sophomores and Freshmen, the former won by the score of 26-24.

—Dr. Squires will lecture before the Mid-Winter Conference, held at the Auburn Theological Seminary, next Tuesday. It is hoped that some from the College will attend this Conference.

—The Team to debate Union, on March 4th, will consist of Wallace, Truax, Rifenburg and Dounce alternate. The proposition is: "Resolved: That the Tariff should be raised from Canadian lumber."

—Last Sunday, the Day of Prayer for Colleges, Dr. J. B. Lee, '86, occupied the pulpit. He was on the Hill for several days. Next Sunday, Dr. Squires will preach, and the following week Dr. Knox, who will also deliver the Washington's Birthday address.

—Who said that a great man isn't great in his native town?—or that the Press Club isn't doing good work?—Read: "It was quite proper that a day of prayer should be observed at Hamilton College on the Sunday preceding the "dance week" orgies."—Clinton Courier. This sounds like that russet Hero of Marcellus.

—Professor Davenport left on Thursday evening for Washington, where he will speak on "Lincoln and the Common People," at a banquet of the Loyal Legion, at which Speaker Cannon will preside.

—In regard to the proposed Memorial to Alexander Hamilton, Charles H. Duell, '71, of New York, in a letter to the New York Sun, suggested that the funds subscribed for this purpose should be used in the interest of Hamilton College, the most worthy memorial to the great statesman.

—"Union is to have a new Gymnasium, within three years," is the announcement made by the Concordiensis. The reason they are going to have one, is behind the project. The first action in the movement, was made by the Student Body, nearly ten-thousand dollars being subscribed at a single meeting. This summer two of the Seniors are to make a canvass of every Union Alumnus. Such a spirit is sure to succeed; Union will have a new Gymnasium inside of three years.

—"Uncle John" has made the request that the fellows stop coming up in the Gym. between classes and shooting baskets with hob-nails in their shoes. The floor has already been badly scratched in several places.

—Sunday being fine, many of the students took long walks across the hills. Prospect Point seemed to be the common Mecca.

—Senator Davenport is attaining prominence at Albany, thru his strong advocacy of a direct primary bill which may soon become a law. The direct primary is one of the live issues in New York State today.
